

Drug Diversion Quiz

1. Healthcare providers who steal prescription medicines or controlled substances such as opioids for their own use put patients/residents at risk for transmission of blood borne pathogens if a provider tampers with an injectable drug.
  - a. True
  - b. False

2. Infection prevention and control actions a healthcare facility can implement to decrease drug diversions include: (Select all that apply)
  - a. Having specific policies and procedures in place.
  - b. Monitor healthcare providers access to controlled substance.
  - c. Investigate discrepancies in drug counts.
  - d. Monitoring placement and disposal of analgesic medication patches.
  - e. Allowing the charge nurse to be the only one able to access or administer any controlled substance.

3. Drug diversion only is a concern when it involves injectable drugs and otherwise patients are not harmed.
  - a. True
  - b. False