

Enhanced Barrier Precautions Quiz

1. Enhanced Barrier Precautions only needs to be used for residents in long-term care that have a history of a multi-drug resistant organism.
 - a. True
 - b. False

2. The following high-contact resident care activities requires the use of a gown and gloves for residents placed on enhanced barrier precautions. (Select all that apply)
 - a. Dressing
 - b. Transferring
 - c. Assisting resident at meals
 - d. Device care or use
 - e. Wound care
 - f. Playing cards with a resident

3. Residents are at an increased risk of being colonized with a multi-drug resistant organism (MDRO) if they have an indwelling device or open wound and implementing enhanced barrier precautions is a proven strategy to prevent transmission to other residents or healthcare providers.
 - a. True
 - b. False