

IPC Topic: RSV

Select an answer.

1. What is respiratory syncytial virus or RSV?
 - a) common respiratory virus that usually causes mild, cold-like symptoms
 - b) not a serious condition for infants and older adults
 - c) the same virus that causes influenza

2. Symptoms of RSV include all the following except.
 - a) Runny nose
 - b) Decrease in appetite
 - c) Coughing
 - d) Sneezing
 - e) Fever
 - f) Wheezing
 - g) Stomach pain

3. Which of these are NOT one of the ways you can prevent RSV?
 - a) Use of a facemask for source control
 - b) Physical distancing
 - c) Staying home when sick
 - d) Speak with your medical advisor regarding vaccinations
 - e) Cover your coughs with your hands

1. A. 2. g 3. e